Henry Whitcomb of Orange was in the city on business yesterday.

George LeClair of Woodsville, N. H., was in town on business yesterday.

Mrs. James McKernan and daughter returned yesterday from a ten days' visit with friends in Boston, Mass.

The merits of capital punishment will be threshed out at a committee meeting at the State House, Montpelier, next Monday evening.

There will be a meeting of division No. 1, A. O. H., Thursday, October 18, at 7:30 p. m. The first and second degrees will be exemplified.

Mr. and Mrs. Prentiss C. Dodge were visitors in the city yesterday afternoon, the former having resided here at one time. Mr. Dodge now represents three Vermont newspapers during the legislative session.

Editor P. J. Halrossa of the Vermont Union Signal of Rutland was in the city last night, having come to Barre from Montpelier, where he participated in the hearing on the weekly payment bill.

Mrs. S. T. Achenbach of East Barre went to Boston today to attend the convention of the Women's Christian Temperance union, and from there she will go to Hartford, Conn., to attend the World's W. C. T. U. convention.

Speaker Thomas C. Cheney of the House of Representatives now in session at Montpelier was a visitor in the city yesterday afternoon, calling on friends. Among those he called on was Dr. E. G. Sprague, a classmate in the university of Vermont fifteen or eighteen years ago. The two had not met for thirteen years.

In accordance with the constitution, the Vermont Historical society met yesterday afternoon in annual meeting in the rooms of the society at the State House. In the absence of President J. G. Benedict of Burlington, George W. Wing of Montpelier was chosen president pro tem. No business was transacted and an adjournment was taken to Friday afternoon, November 3, when the business meeting will be held. On the evening of that date the anniversary exercises will be held in Representatives' hall.

The snapping of the trolley wire on the street railroad just below North Barre caused a great deal of inconvenience for many Barre people returning from Montpelier last night. The break occurred at 9:45. One car was at the car barn and another became stalled near the Emale greenhouse. Practically all the people on the latter walked the remainder of the distance into the city, while about half of the passengers left the car at the barn with the intention of walking in. Before the latter reached Barre the break had been repaired and they were picked up along the route. Those who left Montpelier at 9:30 arrived at midnight. Most of the people had been at the State House to hear the discussion of weekly payments.

Many of the careful dressers of Barre will remember Mr. Sturdevant, the expert tailor, who will be pleased to meet you at A. A. Smith & Brother's store, Oct. 18, 19, 20 and 22, and show you the most extensive line of fashionable woolsens and worsteds for fall and winter suits, trousers and overcoats that has ever been shown in New England. Mr. Sturdevant represents one of the largest tailoring houses in the world and is ready to guarantee every garment he sells, not only to be perfect in every respect, but to sell you an all-wool suit at a lower price than you would have to pay for an inferior garment elsewhere. Suits from $15 to $40; trousers from $2.50 to $11; overcoats from $14 up. Remember the dressmaker call at A. A. Smith & Brother's store and inspect the goods. See ad. on page 8.

Are You Particular

About the way in which your Sausage is made? Of course you are. You do not wish Sausage that is made out of poor or waste meat.

Our Green Mountain Brand Sausage we will guarantee is the equal of the best on the market. Not one piece of meat that is not saleable is used in its making. The pork which we handle is native bred. The place where we make our Sausage and the people who make it are as clean as soap and water can make them.

These are some of the reasons why we sell more Sausage than any other market in the vicinity.
